Questions

The link opens a page that says 'Make a copy'. Is that right?

Yes. Click the blue Make a copy button. You get your own private copy in your Google Drive. You are not editing anyone else's file, and nobody can see yours.

It opened read-only and I cannot type.

You are looking at the master. Go back to the link and click Make a copy first. Everything in your own copy is editable.

Do I need to pay for Google Sheets?

No. A free Google account is all you need. If you do not have one, create one at accounts.google.com, then click the link again.

Can I use this on my phone?

Yes. Install the Google Sheets app and your copy will be there. The Dashboard and the daily-use tabs are built to fit a phone screen.

Can I change the currency?

Yes. Set the symbol on the Start Here tab. The numbers themselves work in any currency.

Does this work in Excel?

This is a Google Sheets template and it is tested there. You can download it as Excel from File, Download, but some formatting and drop-downs may not carry across.
